What "M" Sees and Hears on His Rounds About the City and Along Route No. 3.

On last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Philson entertained the clerks of the company at their pretty home on upper Main street with an elaborate turkey supper which was served in style, and a hearty Christmas cheer, as all present enjoyed themselves to the utmost. This was a most pleasant surprise to the salesladies and gentlemen of the firm. Mr. and Mrs. Philson were at their best and entertained in a royal and happy style.

Mrs. Gertrude, and Miss Izzie Sign entertained one evening of last week a large number of their friends at one of the most elaborate and delightful entertainments of the season. The supper was elegant and served in royal style and in its menu was rich in all the delicacies of a well supplied home. The evening was one of great pleasure and will long be remembered by every one present.

Miss Alice Jones is home from Winthrop and will enjoy the pleasures of the season with homefolks and friends.

Miss Mary Syfan has closed her school for the holidays and will enjoy herself with her home people and friends.

Numbers of our college girls and boys are home for the holidays, but we have not had the pleasure of meeting them individually, so will write of them in a general way. Their home-coming is always looked for with the greatest pleasure by homefolks and friends, as their presence makes loved ones happy and adds gaiety and happiness to the social circles. May each and every one of them have a merry Christmas.

The Press and Banner is up-to-date in its content of a beautiful Piano. Read and get a move on you as by so doing you may be the lucky one.

The Press and Banner has been a constant and faithful visitor in many homes for the past year and so highly appreciated that you can't afford to do without it, so send in your cash and renewal for the coming year and in so doing you will bring joy and gladness to your home and perhaps be the lucky one in the coming contest.

Mr. Willie Latimer is here after a long absence to spend the holidays. He looks well and enjoys a lucrative position in Uncle Sam's great army.

Among our far off visitors Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hemphill are here to spend this happy season with loved ones and friends.

HAPPENINGS ALONG ROUTE 3.

Miss Sara Evans, one of the pretty young ladies on Route 3, closed her flourishing school at Greeleyville and is enjoying the holidays with homefolks and friends.

Miss Agnes Graham, the popular and cultured principal of the Flatwoods school, is spending the holidays with friends and relatives in Greenwood.

Miss Ora Ellis, principal of the Lebanon school, is enjoying the Christmas season with home folks at Due West.

Mr. J. C. Agnew of Due West, principal, and Mrs. Harkness, assistant teacher of Sharon school, are enjoying the holidays at their respective homes.

Messrs. S. L. and T. E. Wilson were hunting for Santa Claus last Saturday and judging from their well filled buggies they must have found him.

MOVING AROUND ON ROUTE 3.

Mr. M. B. Kennedy and family have moved from their pretty home "Rocky Grove" to Willington. We regret to lose them as patrons.

Mr. J. M. Graham has moved from Route 2 to Route 3 and has his mail box at No. 2 mile rock.

Mr. J. R. Smith and family have moved from their old home to the plantation of Mr. Henry Corlisse, a mile nearer town.

Mr. A. K. Woodhurst and family have moved to the cottage belonging to Mr. R. M. Haddon, about 3 1-2 miles from Abbeville.

Mrs. Mattie Adams has moved to a dwelling on the plantation of Mr. C. F. Graves and will be near her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Bass.

Misses Lyna and Aline Evans are home from Linwood College, N. C., and will brighten the social circles on Route 3 by their presence.

Miss Dotsie Evans is expected home from Atlanta and will enjoy the pleasures of the season with homefolks and friends.

Prof. T. B. Penney of Spartanburg is enjoying the Christmas holidays with his home people and friends on Route 3.

Mr. Foster Hammond is in Columbia under medical treatment and is getting along so well that he expects to be home soon.

Get your mind on the piano contest in The Press and Banner and remember for just a little of your spare time you may receive an elegant $400 piano. Read the conditions of the contest and enlist.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, ABBEVILLE COUNTY.

Probate Court—Citation for Letters of Administration.

By J. F. Miller, Esq., Judge of Probate.

Whereas, Drayton Nance hath made suit to me to grant him letters of administration of the estate and effects of Mrs. Susie A. Clinkscales, late of Abbeville county, deceased.

These are therefore to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said Mrs. Susie A. Clinkscales, deceased, that they be and appear before me in the Court of Probate, to be held at Abbeville C. H. on Tuesday, the eighth day of January, 1913, after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said administration should not be granted. Given under my hand and seal of the Court, this 23d day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred and twelve and in the 137th year of American independence.

Published on the 25th day of December, 1912, in The Press and Banner and on the court house door for the time required by law.

J. F. MILLER, Judge of Probate.
